

February The Yearly Housecleaning Time

Housecleaning Time

- men know little about the worry and work of housecleaning time, unless they happen to be in the retail business.
- every woman knows that housecleaning, like moving, brings to light many things that had been forgotten.
- men know only that they dislike coming home to lunch at this time, when everything is upset; curtains are down, rugs are up, furniture out of place, the home uncomfortable generally.
- in a store the size of this one, it is quite impossible to keep all merchandise in place, to keep it forward and to keep it clean.
- in today's advertisement we are telling you of some of the odds and ends that housecleaning has revealed, and which are now ready for complete clearance.
- come and wander about the store. In many cases the lots are too small for mention.
